MURDERER OF GIBBY IS STILL LOOSE

Police Posses With Blood-hounds Search Parks for Maniac Who Wantonly Shot Down 19-Year Alice Gibby

Victim, Slain by Total Stranger
While Walking Along
Street With Chum on Way to Party at Home of Fiance

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—
Armed posses of police officers and bloodhounds today are searching the Piedmont residential district, and particularly Buena Vista park, in upper Haight street, for an unidentified man, presumably a maniac, who last night wantonly shot and killed Miss Alice Gibby, 19, of Fresno, in front of a residence at 447 Buena Vista avenue.

The murderer also fired several shots at Virginia Thompson, a companion of Miss Gibby, who was struck in the back. She then disappeared in the thick underbrush in Buena Vista park, which is near the city limits.

POLICE AIDED BY HOUNDS:
SEARCH DISTRICT.

Police officers armed with shotguns and leading bloodhounds, arrived on the scene a short time later and began a search which lasted all night and which still was in progress today. Other districts in the city also are being searched, including Sutter forest which is not far from Buena Vista.

A search of all cheap lodging houses, restaurants and similar places was made.

Police believe the man was a foreigner and was paying particular attention to foreign quarters of the city in conducting their search.

The revolver with which Miss Gibby was killed was taken by detectives to numerous second-hand stores and pawn shops in an effort to trace its purchaser.

Miss Gibby arrived from Fresno
a few days ago and had been stopping with Miss Thompson. She was going to have returned home today and both girls were on their way to a farewell party given in Miss Gibby's honor when they were intercepted by the man.

According to Miss Thompson they were passing the park when a man of foreign appearance and speaking in an accent addressed them saying:

"Stop a minute, girls. I need your help."

When the girls ignored him and quickened their pace he raised his voice and cried:

"Girls, I'm lovin' you; you must help me."

MAN OPENS FIRE ON
TWO HELPING GIRLS.

Thoroughly frightened by this time, the girls started to run. At the same instant the man drew a revolver from a pocket and commenced firing.

Miss Gibby crumpled to the sidewalk with four bullets in her body.
Miss Thompson continued running and the man fired three shots after her. None took effect and she then hid behind a bush and hid.

It struck her in the back, knocking her to the pavement.

A few minutes later Miss Thompson encountered Arthur B. Brown, a 45-year-old man, who was on route to Miss Thompson's home to escort the girls to the party.

Detman and Miss Thompson rushed to Miss Gibby's side, but the girl died within a few minutes without regaining consciousness. Miss Thompson collapsed and still was under the care of a physician today.

POSSIBLE ORGANIZED.

The shooting aroused the entire neighborhood and within a few minutes after the tragedy residents were streaming from their homes to see what happened.

The man is described as being short and heavy in build, of dark complexion and apparently 25 years old.

A dramatic scene occurred when Detman went to the home of Rosamund Cox, 826 Ashbury street, who was to have been hostess to Miss Gibby. She had been killed and Virginia had been hurt.

Sorority House Blaze Follows Berkeley Party

Girl Students Help to Fight
Fire Which Threatens Phi Mu Residence.

BERKELEY, April 2.—A fire which came as a climax to festivities in honor of a bride-elect, threatened the Phi Mu sorority house, 2429 Channing way, with serious damage shortly before midnight last night.

The blaze broke up a party which Miss Edith Newton, a senior student at the university, was giving at the sorority house for Miss Ada Shaw-Newton, U. S. A., a brother of the hostess.

Approximately forty sorority girls were the guests of Miss Newton, each bringing a gift for the bride-elect. Instead of a fire, a large quantity of tissue paper was thrown, with which the gifts were wrapped. Flames shoot from the chimney.

Discovered by a passerby, who rushed into the house to inform the girls of the fire, Miss Newton summoned the fire department. In the meantime arousing a half dozen or more sleeping sorority sisters, and marshaled
the girls into a fire-fighting brigade
until the arrival of the department.

Miss Charlotte Dowle, sophomore student, who was asleep in the house at the time, described the fire as arising from the chimney.

Among those who attended the function, and aided in extinguishing
the blaze were: Pearl Showman, Beulah Woods, Esther and Nettie Bennett, Helen Leets, Mary Kruse, Mabel and Nellie Dunsmore, Mildred Hurston, Edna Nixon, Alice French, Clar-ice and Gertrude Hampton and May McLaughlin.

An unidentified man who tried to rob the repair shop of J. W. Rost, 2310
San Pablo avenue, early this morning, was fired at five times and pursued by Rost with a pistol and a revolver.

As Rosa approached the building he observed that the gate leading into the alley was open. At the same instant he saw the intruder enter the rear door of the establishment.

Rosa tried to head off the intruder
but the latter turned and fled. Rosa followed him and fired five shots, but Rosa missed the man a considerable distance but was unable to overtake him.

Campbell turned the letter over to the police.

None was seriously injured.

SAN DIEGO, April 2.—A warrant

battery charge, sworn to by Max Pozzo, was in the hands of police for service today. Coffroth and two companion who are also sought by John Doe warrants are alleged to have beaten Pozzo on the Tia Juana affray Coffroth is said to have had a badly chawed thumb attended by a local physician. The trouble arose, according to Coffroth's friends, when a second automobile drove up behind Coffroth's car and started a right-of-way argument of a bad stretch of road when Coffroth's car had stopped to allow an occupant to retrieve his hat, which had blown off.

Austrian Parliament Votes

GENEVA, April 2.—The Swiss general council has decided provisionally to permit former Emperor Carl to return to this country.

Among the promises which will be exact from Carl will be to abstain from political propaganda
and not leave Switzerland again without formal notice.

VIENNA, April 2.—(United Press).—Officially repudiated by both Hungary and Austria, the former Emperor Carl was on his way back to Switzerland today, his dream of a return to the Hapsburg throne definitely ended.

Within the short space of twenty-four hours his status had changed from a potential king to that of a courtier.

Under a Spanish safe conduct and in virtual custody of two British army officers, Carl left Steina-ranger for the Swiss border yesterday in a special train. Elaborate preparations were made to guard the train as it passed through this and other Austrian cities.

He was accompanied, by an unanimous vote declared in favor of continuation of the republic as against restoration of the Hapsburg dynasty.

NATIONAL ASSEMBLY
REFUSES CHARLES

Despatches from Budapest stated that the Hungarian national assembly enthusiastically adopted resolutions opposing confidence in the government of the regent, Admiral Horthy, and declaring the return of Carl would constitute a great national danger.

Conflicting reports were received as to whether Carl had signed a formal statement of abdication before his departure. One despatch from Budapest said he refused and merely consented to go to a neutral country, either Switzerland or Spain.

Other advices declared he had signed official repudiation of his monarchic ambitions.

The Hungarian government was understood to have agreed to grant amnesty to all persons in any way connected with Carl's attempted coup.

PROFESSOR SLAYS DEAN, AND HIMSELF

Dr. Holmes Beckwith, Once

Well Known in Berkeley

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEARNED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 2.—J.
Herman Wharton, dean of the College of Business Administration, Syracuse University, was shot and killed by Holmes Beckwith, professor of financial and insurance subjects, in the college this morning.

Beckwith then turned the gun on himself and committed suicide.
The shooting occurred in the office of the School of Administration, in the College of Agriculture building. Professor Beckwith had been unpopular with the students, it was said, and petitions had been circulated among the student body asking for his removal.

NOTE TELLS OF PLAN
TO COMMIT SUICIDE

In a statement issued soon after the shooting, Chancellor Day declared that it was his belief that Dean Wharton died trying to prevent Professor Beckwith from committing suicide.

This was indicated in a note left for Dean Wharton by Prof. Beckwith, the chancellor said, in which he intimated that he was going to shoot the dean. Beckwith was shot and died in the hospital. He was unjustly treated of himself based on the fact that he had been dismissed, the dismissal to take effect
the end of the year. Dean Wharton's chair, a stout one, was broken.
He evidently leaped from it when Beckwith tried to kill himself, the gun was turned on him and the dean was shot through the head. Beckwith was shot in the chest. He also stabbed himself to make death certain.

SUICIDE WAS ONCE
ARTILLERY LIEUTENANT

Dr. Beckwith was a first lieutenant, field artillery, in the world war.
He joined the Syracuse University Faculty last September. He was head of the department of finance and insurance.

Dean Wharton was a graduate of Syracuse University and had been an instructor there for the last few years. Two years ago he conceived the idea of a college of business administration, and he was appointed to carry out the plan.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Dr.
Holmes Beckwith was an ex-aminer

from August to December, 1914, and was dismissed upon complaint of the banks that he was not a proper person for the position.

Germany Is Told By U. S. It Must Pay War Damage

Position of Harding Adminis-

BY UNITED PRESS.
LEARNED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The German government has been notified of the United States' position that Germany must accept full moral responsibility and pay reparations
for the world war.

The attitude of the United States has not been communicated to the Berlin government formally, because the American government has not diplomatic relations with Germany, still being technically at war with that country.

Germany is understood to have been notified of the American position by British Ambassador Loring
in Berlin.

The position of the United States is the outgrowth of a number of conferences between Commissioner Dresel and German Minister Munster.

In these conferences, it was said,
the German foreign minister has sought to secure the sympathy of the United States for Germany in the conflict with the Allies. Over the reparations question, Dresel communicated the gist of these discussions to the State Department. It is declared by the government that the United States government instructed him to maintain the attitude of this country that Germany must pay, as outlined by a high official yesterday.

The communications outlining the American position were sent to Dresel
for him to announce to the German government, before Rene Vi-viani, special French envoy, arrived here, shortly after yesterday. Vi-viani did not secure the statement of policy of yesterday. It was understood to be gratifying to him, however.

This policy, according to German officials, was to be presented to the elderly President Hindenburg and Secretary of State Hughes shortly after the new administration took office was forecast exclusively by the

LONDON, April 2.—Though the United Kingdom trembles on the brink of a tremendous industrial upheaval which is considered inevitable
if the nation-wide coal strike lasts,
the general public displayed remarkable calmness on this, the second day of the strike, which saw practically all of the 1,200,000 miners in England idle.

The spirit of "muddling through somehow" was apparent on all sides,
but even in conservative quarters it was conceded that this crisis is more dangerous than any of its kind the kingdom has passed through.

The government, from King George down, is giving every indication that it is thoroughly aware of the gravity of the situation. The king has called parliament to convene for Monday, eight days sooner than the date originally set "because of the emergency existing." The government's official declaration, moreover, described the situation as the gravest since the declaration of war in 1914, and a special cabinet committee has been appointed to deal with the crisis.

SIX MINES ARE ALREADY FLOODED

As in previous coal strikes, the all-overwhelming fear of the government is again that the two other parties to the strike, the transport men and the transport workers
—may join the miners. Thousands of dock workers employed handling to man the pumps at the mines, a difficult problem owing to the strong picketing by strikers.

Six mines are already flooded so that they can never be put in operation again. Thirty others have been flooded, and the government is in a hurry to prevent their flooding.
A nation-wide call has been issued for volunteers to assist in pumping the mines.

TRAIN SERVICE
IS CUT DOWN

Meanwhile the usual stringent measures of restriction and economy have been ordered by the government. Rationing of coal for household use has been resumed, and train service has been greatly reduced.
The government is appealing to the public to exercise the strictest economy in the use of coal, light, transport, petrol and food supplies.

All other industries, being dependent upon coal, are beginning to be affected by the stop and many of the coal mines, left to the mercy of rushing waters by the strike of miners and pumpmen, have already been flooded. Four of these mines are in South Wales, and one in the northeast of Dean, county of Gloucester,

FOUR BILLS FOR SCHOOLS FAVORED BY ASSEMBLYMEN

West's Plan to Limit Phone Despatching on Railways Is Defeated.

SACRAMENTO, April 2.—The assembly of the state legislature passed four bills for the schools of the state last night, one authorizing the elevation of normal schools to teachers' colleges with authority to grant teachers' degrees, another amending existing laws to further the teachers' college plan, and two more making minor amendments in the school code at the request of the state board of education.

It postponed the wet and dry question to next week, making a special order of Hornblower's resolution for a memorial to congress favoring light wines and beers, and another special order of the T. M. Wright prohibition enforcement bill. The Hornblower resolution will be taken up Wednesday and the Wright bill Thursday, each at 1 o'clock.

Tonight the senate and assembly committees on governmental efficiency and economy started joint hearings on the various reorganization bills and planning through the nooned hope of getting through about a week by working nights and Sunday.

COMPENSATION BILL

The assembly again took up the "luctation" to "win" with the state insurance compensation laws, as one statesman phrased it in debate, and voted down a bill by Parkinson that would have held the surplus funds of the commission to the usual reserve plus $1,000,000 for hazards of disaster, and would have authorized the return of any remaining sums to the insurers, either in cash dividends or by way of credit on their policies. There were sixty votes against the bill, even the author disowning it. He explained he had introduced it by request, and that the insurance committee had passed it out, but that he would vote no "in preference to the changed views of the committee as shown by their votes."

LABOR BILL DEFEATED

The lower house also refused passage to a bill by West that was intended to limit the transmission of telephoned or telegraphed train orders at stations where no agent was maintained to insure the safety of passengers and conductors instead of any trainman as at present. The bill was defeated on the argument that it was interference with work now handled by the railroad commission. Another bill to go down in defeat was introduced by Spaulding, and would have given counties the option to return to the old system of appointing county surveyors and designating road districts instead of by a county engineer. A bill by McGee to make the limit for deer one annually was also beaten, the present law allowing two being upheld in debate as sufficient for the purpose.

Clearly secured passage of an amendment to the horticultural laws providing a method for financing the abatement of certain pests in orchards and also providing that when owners declined to abate such pests or take advantage of the proffered aid, the counties may do the work, and the cost will be a first lien on the property.

McDowell's bill to provide that deductions from the pay of employees because of tardiness shall not exceed by more than a half hour the time actually lost, was adopted after debate.

BONDS FOR OFFICIALS

A bill by Hurley authorizing the payment by counties of premium for surety bonds required of township officers was passed without opposition. West's bill to require counties to pay for autopsies on the bodies of convicts committed from such counties was passed. West said now when the bill is passed without opposition in the assembly, it is a sign of the times. The bill was passed and defeated all original bills in the assembly, and those passed were sent to the senate for concurrence.

The assembly adjourned to meet again tomorrow.

Baseball Gambling Bill Is Favored

SACRAMENTO, April 2.—Senator Lawrence J. Flaherty's baseball gambling bill, which makes it a felony to bribe participants in a ball game, came up for a second reading in the assembly today. The bill is expected to pass with the same unanimity vote that was received in the senate.

The measure was introduced at the request of William H. McCarthy, president of the Pacific Coast League, to meet the situation that was developed in the baseball scandals of last season.

Assemblyman Rosenhouse is looking after the Flaherty bill in the lower house. The act adds four new sections to the penal code to cover the "growing menace in the national sport."

Governor Signs Bill for Submarine Base

CAPITOL, SACRAMENTO, April 2.—United States Governor W. D. Stephens today signed assembly bill No. 223, permitting Los Angeles county to deed 147 acres of land to the United States government for federal defense. The bill applies directly to the San Pedro submarine base.

Another bill signed by the governor permits corporations to give stock to employees.

FORD'S PAPER STARTS RIOT.

TOLEDO, April 2.—Sale of Henry Ford's newspaper, the Dearborn Independent, precipitated a gang fight in front of the federal building. Traffic was blocked and police officers were called out to disperse the mob.

European Situation and Sunday's Oakland Tribune

MAXIMILIAN HARDEN, German publicist, discusses the recent Red uprisings in Germany, but declares the Soviet attempts have been abortive. Germany's real danger, he thinks, lies in a turn toward reaction. Hailed toward the Allies has been fanned to a white heat and "unprejudiced justice" has never more necessary than now.

ARTHUR HENDERSON, English labor statesman, believes that the British labor situation is approaching a critical stage because of the miners' strike. He declares an effort is being made to drive the miners to a lower standard of living than they enjoyed before the war.

WILLIAM BIRD, in a cable from London, seeks to point out that the possibility of the return of Charles to the throne of Hungary is not viewed with great alarm by some of the Allied statesmen despite the solemn warning sent to Budapest. Europe is at the forks of roads of democracy and reaction, he fears.

ANDRE TARDIEU, in the forefront of French politics, declares in his cablegram that France is reassured as to the policy of the Harding administration toward the reparations problem. It is understood that the Knox resolution declaring a separate peace with Germany is dead, which Tardieu believes is a good beginning.

ROBERT T. SMALL, Washington correspondent, says that business interests of the nation are urging President Harding to direct his efforts first to remedial legislation and sidetrack temporarily tariff problems.

HARDEN COLFAX has an interview with Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, who is of the opinion that the farmer must receive more for his products or pay less for what he consumes before the nation can return to prosperity.

U. C. and State Educators Reported at Loggerheads

By AD B. SCHUSTER

ponents who are criticising the Berkeley institution say that two years ago a similar conference between university and school board was sought, but that the regents never appeared or acted toward making the meeting possible. They would make this attitude of the regents two years ago an occasion for taking a slap at the university this year.

The university answer is that if the legislature orders such a conference there will be no occasion to fear a repetition of the old experience.

There is no emergency existing and the junior colleges cannot be started overnight and without the money. It would seem, then, according to the university position that there is plenty of time for a conference of the educational leaders of the state that a junior college system best designed to serve all ends may be worked out. It is over this that the legislative battle between junior colleges is being waged here and not over a question of university opposition to the schools.

WETS AND DRY TO POLL STRENGTH

TRIBUNE BUREAU, SACRAMENTO, April 2.—Next week will see two more main events in the list of scraps on the wet and dry issue. The Hornblower resolution memorializing Congress to amend the Volstead act will be up on Wednesday in the assembly. It is just like the Badarrac resolution passed last week, except that it puts no limit on the alcoholic content of the wines and beers which it asks be allowed.

On Thursday the Wright bill, which is the Harris act under its latest name, will be up before the assembly as a special order of business. The vote on this measure at this time will be the big test of strength by the dries and the cohorts from all parts of the state will be present to see what happens.

Home Is Robbed of $1000 in Property

Returning home early today, after an absence of about three weeks, Mrs. M. M. Symms, who occupies an apartment at 1444 Jackson street, discovered that during her absence someone entered the basement of the building and rifled a trunk containing a quantity of silverware and other valuables. She was trailed at about 1000 had been taken, Mrs. Symms told the police today. The thief entered the basement from the kitchen, where they had pried open a window.

COLLEGE CONTENTION

Another emphatic opinion expressed by the university men is that there should be no plan which would remove the privilege of any student of taking his freshman and sophomore work at Berkeley if he desires. In other words, the first year of college at Berkeley would be open to students from all parts of the state and the added advantages of equipment and larger association would not be taken away from anyone.

Some of the Hughes bill proponents who are criticising the Berkeley institution say that two years ago a similar conference between university and school board was sought, but that the regents never appeared or acted toward making the meeting possible. They would make this attitude of the regents two years ago an occasion for taking a slap at the university this year.

BUDGET BILL TO REACH ASSEMBLY WITHIN FEW DAYS

Hearings in Committee Over and Measure Is Ready for Floor Debate.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEARNED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

SACRAMENTO, April 2.—The general appropriation bill which will carry the maintenance and improvement of all state institutions and will take care of most of the financial allowances of the state for the ensuing biennium, will reach the floor of the assembly some time next week as early as can be completed, according to Chairman T. M. Wright of the assembly ways and means committee.

"We have finished all budget hearings," said Wright, "and beginning tonight we will hold executive sessions to discuss the items to be recommended to the legislature. We have a complete schedule of all appropriations requested with comparison of the appropriations of the 1919 session for similar purposes, with the request for the current biennium of those in authority and with the recommendations of the budget board. We have also the results of our own inquiries and the suggestions of all those who appeared before the committee."

In making up our recommendations we will be governed by these figures and facts and by our own findings at the long series of budget hearings held before the assembly committee of the ways and means committee. I understand that the senate has made some suggestions, or proposed some limitations to its committee, but the assembly will be guided only by its own findings."

"We want to get the bill on the floor just as soon as possible which will be some time next week. This will enable the assembly to give it full consideration and yet get it to the senate in time for that house to do likewise."

W. P. Johnson Named S. F. Superior Judge

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Governor Stephens yesterday appointed William P. Johnson to the superior bench to succeed the late Judge Henry M. Owens, who died a few days ago. Johnson was law partner of Assemblyman Albert A. Rosenhouse for a number of years.

Assemblyman Rosenhouse is said to have been the unanimous choice of the legislature for the place, but the naming of Rosenhouse was prohibited by a provision of the state constitution.

During the last twenty years Johnson has engaged in the practice of civil law in San Francisco. A graduate of Harvard University, Columbia University of Law, he was admitted to the bar in New York City, where he practiced for a number of years. After coming to California he was associated for several years with J. E. Reinsteiner, late regent of the University of California. Johnson is unmarried. He was born in 1862.

Federation Women Oppose Boxing Bill

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—The City Federation of Women's Clubs expressed opposition to the Scott bill providing for the re-instatement of prize fighting at meetings at the Fairmont hotel yesterday. Protests of the 12,000 women will be expressed in a special letter addressed to Senator Scott. The executive board instructed the secretaries to forward letters of protest to the San Francisco delegation.

Miss Jennie Partridge and Miss Russell Ward, chairman of the Civic department, were the principal speakers.

"Women should protest against the re-instatement of fighting in this state," Miss Ward declared.

Water Company to Make Street Repairs

Assistant Superintendent of Streets Hall today received from the East Bay Water Company a verbal notice that an extra paving repair gang has been laid on by that company to repair the bumps across streets caused by trenches for water mains. By an old agreement the city repairs the breaks in some parts of the city while in other parts the water company does it. Continuous complaints about the condition of paved streets have been received lately by the street department.

Switchman Is Held On Mann Act Charge

BAKERSFIELD, April 2.—Arthur J. Elmer, railway switchman, was held here today for federal authorities on a charge of violating the Mann act. Blum, it is alleged, brought Miss Mary Jane Cline of Portland Ore. to this city. He was trailed from here to San Pedro, thence to San Diego and the Imperial Valley. Ease That Aching Back!

Is a dull, throbbing backache keeping you miserable? Are you tired, lame and tortured with stabbing pains at every sudden move? Is the trouble making your work a burden and rest impossible? Isn't it time, then, you were finding what is wrong? Springtime for many folks is backache time—a common sign that the kidneys need help. Winter's colds and chills, and the damp, changing weather of early spring strain the kidneys, and slow them up. Poisons accumulate and then comes those mysterious aches and pains, those dizzy spells, headaches and annoying bladder irregularities. Get rid of the trouble before it becomes serious. Begin using Doan's Kidney Pills today. They have helped thousands and should help you. Ask your neighbor!

These Are Oakland Cases:

Forty-Seventh Street Mrs. W. Zierau, 1850 47th Ave., says: "My kidneys were weak and I became run down and languid. My back was weak and lame and I had no energy and my work tired me easily. Frequent dizzy headaches annoyed me and my kidneys acted irregularly. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they were just what I needed. They soon relieved all signs of the trouble and strengthened my back and kidneys."	Twelfth Street Nick Loeza, chauffeur, 1488 Twelfth Street, says: "I am glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, for I know they are just as represented. My kidneys were weak and I had severe headaches and such pains across my kidneys I could hardly stoop. The action of my kidneys was irregular and caused lots of annoyance. Three boxes of Doan's relieved the aches and pains and regulated my kidneys."	Eighty-Third Avenue Mrs. W. R. Fry, 1437 83rd Ave., says: "Several years ago my kidneys troubled me. I had such severe backaches I couldn't rest at night and when I got up mornings I felt completely worn out. I became nervous and irritable and was hardly ever free from headaches. My kidneys didn't act right. I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and used them and they cured me of the backaches and all symptoms of kidney trouble."

JUNE BRIDES? NO, THEY WED IN JULY?

There were, and are, a whole legion of girls and women who in by-gone days were convinced they were June brides because they were married in June.

Oakland who is strong on history and mathematics with a theory which tends to prove that these women and girls, as a matter of fact, were not June brides in July, they were in reality married in July.

This authority bases his contention on early-day changes in the calendar and on dates and no one can convince him his dates are twisted. Here is how he figures it out.

Those who were married from the first to and including the eleventh of June have been fooled for many years. The days from September 8 to September 14, 1582 were eliminated and the clock moved forward from September 2 to September 14. The intervening dates were non-existent on the calendar. Hence when we record June 2 in actuality it is the merry month of May and some who thought they were losing the "June bride" title by getting married up to July 11 actually were in the running. If actual time is computed.

"On the old style calendar September 2, 1582, fell on Wednesday but when one awakened on Thursday he was informed that it was Wednesday. The new style or Gregorian calendar having been adopted by Great Britain to which the Colonies were compelled to acquiesce. Up to that the Julian calendar had been in vogue, as reformed by Julius Caesar."

"The year consisted of 365 days and six hours, with an extra day added each fourth year, this year was 11 minutes and 14 seconds longer than the solar year of 365 days 5 hours, 48 minutes and 46 seconds, amounting to one day in 123 years. Pope Gregory to square matters as to time elapsed, corrected things to suit, without regard to 'June brides' in 1582 by dropping 10 days."

PUBLISHER SEES DANGER IN BILL MINISTER WINS DIVORCE FIGHT

HONOLULU, April 2.—Opposition to an American Legion sponsored bill, which would provide that foreign language newspapers must furnish translation of all articles before publication, was expressed today by the senate judiciary committee of Lorrin A. Thurston, publisher of the Pacific Commercial Advertiser and one of the most prominent men of the islands, who was identified with the old monarchy in Hawaii and a leader in the negotiations for its annexation to the United States.

Thurston outlined the seriousness of misunderstandings between the people of Japan and the United States and deprecated any effort that would further strain the relationship. He suggested that the proposed bill would have this effect. Sponsors of the bill have not attempted to conceal that it is directed against Japanese newspapers.

Japanese publishers assert that the burden of expense involved in providing such translations would be prohibitive and the bill therefore would mean discontinuance of Japanese newspapers.

Thurston urged that if translations were deemed necessary, the territory assume the expense of translation and censorship instead of forcing the foreign papers to employ translators.

The minister stated that his wife had been consistently refused to bear children, explaining her attitude with the statement that they were "bothersome."

Eighty youngsters in 1 year school owe their well conditioned teeth to the interest of the women of the Hill Club. Americanization is thus related as citizens by this coterie of some half hundred friends. Citizenship means to them good health, good standards of living and active participation in the affairs of the community. They are doing their part in providing the health and education of the children of the community by the same participation in the same manner as the local conclusion of their effort.

Lazear school neighborhood, appeared strongly to the clubwomen when January heralded that their season was opened. It was discovered that the most needful thing to be done was to provide a modest but regular fund upon which these having in charge the Americanization work might count. The Hill Club pledged $10 a month as an experiment in service in this particular interest. The money has gone toward the dental work of the school children.

Reports from the home teacher this week showed that the months of 80 youngsters were made clean by means of this sum since the beginning of the year.

The club members, who are also neighbors, meet every Monday in their homes in the Linda Vista district from January to June. During the war they made a national record in service. Recently they became auxiliary to Oakland center, California Civic League. They are giving support to the municipal water department, which is broadening the scope of the recreation department to be voted upon April 13. The citizenship work in the lower Twenty-sixth Avenue district became their big piece of work this year.

"Have you any white elephants in your home?" was asked of Black Ridge Club women on the April edition of the answer was given yesterday when the members assembled for an all-day thrillee at the home of Mrs. C. The gifts which have been secured from the households will go toward filling the booths at the Garfield school, "White Elephant Sale" announced for Friday, April 21. A big stock of all sorts of interesting things will find the way from Black Ridge to Miss Parley, who is directing the East Oakland benefit. From 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. yesterday the volunteer seamstresses of the club were plotting the task of helping to clothe the community child which they set for themselves at the beginning of the year. The afternoon interrupted at the noon time.

Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, president of Mills College, will be the honored guest of Hill and Valley Club on Monday, when the spring luncheon summons the members, a distinguished company of feminine leaders. With Dr. Reinhardt the principal speaker, the late afternoon program will be presented by Mills College students.

"A Toast to Mills College" will be voiced during the luncheon by Mrs. R. R. Rogers, first vice-president, Alameda district, C. P. W. C. A. Toast to the higher education will be offered by Mrs. L. R. Rosenberg, president of the Alameda County Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. George Cunningham will introduce the new elected officers. Mrs. Lora Pratt, president, will preside as toastmistress.

To that $3000 beginning for the $75,000 building (and for a graduate nurses' home in summit street, where a site is owned, Alameda County Nurses' Association) added something more than $700 at the benefit theater party which the officers sponsored this week at the MacArthur playhouse. A series of benefits are being planned with an ambition to hasten that day when ground will be broken for the greatly needed housing institution.

Any woman planning to be in the Yosemite Valley during the annual convention of the California Federation of Women's Clubs, beginning May 24, is invited by Alameda district to enroll in the east for the picnic of California. What's Happening in the Motor World

by Jim Houlihan

11. J. Andree, Highway Weather Service Observer for the United States Weather Bureau office at Red Bluff, in giving out his report for prospective weather conditions during April, radiates enthusiasm over the outlook for this month's touring.

His statement gives an idea of what one may expect in rain and temperature, in different sections of California.

His comments follow: California climate is so mild that even in January and February fruit blossoms and wildflowers decorate the landscape, yet the weather is even far more favorable for touring in spring.

The advancing season is evidenced in April by the comfortably glowing warmth and the increasing length of the sunshine.

Abundant fields of mountain snow sparkle above blossoming orchards and vigorously rich and green pastures and grain fields of the valleys; yet, with the gradually receding snow line, the motorist is enabled to reach his favorite fishing hunting or camping grounds become easily accessible for his enjoyment.

To reach one of the most exhilarating phenomena in nature, the unfolding in spring to a beautiful blossoming and a luxuriant growth of all the vegetation which has been slumbering in almost quiescence throughout its winter resting period, as the thoroughly moistened soil and warm sunshine call it forth for new development.

Great variations in altitude with comparatively short distances, permit the California motorist to follow the belated arrival of spring, week after week, and month after month, as the snow gradually disappears from the mountain heights, so that in June, after only a few hours' journey from home, he is observing in the mountains the first blossoming for the season of some of the same flowers and fruits that have beautified the foothill and valley regions months before.

If April weather is normal, climate in California is favorable for touring in all parts of the state except at the higher elevations where the ground is still snow covered.

The most disagreeable weather that is likely to be encountered is a succession of cold rains. While considerable distance touring is in progress during this month, April is a month especially favorable for trips lasting a few days as periods of agreeable weather conditions can usually be selected that far in advance.

Throughout most of California there are more clear days in April than there are cloudy or partly cloudy days.

ments, 62 and 49; and Fresno; 75 and 48 degrees.

There is ordinarily much clear weather and sunshine and few rainy days. The average number of days with 0.01 of an inch or more is: Red Bluff, 7; Sacramento, 6; Fresno, 4; San Francisco, 7; and Los Angeles, 4.

While pleasant weather usually prevails both along the coast and in the interior, many motorists prefer to tour the valleys and foothills in spring before the arrival of the warmest weather, and then traverse the coast routes in mid-summer, when the cooling ocean breezes can best be appreciated, while others consider the climate mild enough in both regions at all times to make no such distinction.

The editor wrote it: "Woman's fashions of the present day are daring." But the linotype operator, who had his own ideas on the subject, would insist on setting it "daring."

FINISH FIGHT IS WELL UNDER WAY AGAINST APHIDES

Hayward Frankly Told That Pea Industry Is Threatened With Extinction.

HAYWARD, April 2.—As a result of an informal conference between O. E. Essig, state leader of the University of California extension bureau, which is co-operating with the department of agriculture in meeting the individual and collective problems of the farmers throughout California, Marcus Lee, the Alameda county farm advisor, and A. J. Garin, a local pea grower, plans are under consideration which will ultimately bring about a series of elaborate experiments in the control of the green aphid which is threatening the pea growers of this county with ruin. The conference took place Friday morning on the Garin property a few miles east of Hayward, where several experiments have been carried out by the local farm advisor's office.

Although the aphid has not as yet got such hold that it is useless to attempt to fight it, as was the case in Humboldt county some years ago, still indications everywhere throughout the county point to the urgency of some preventive measure that will control its spreading. It is useless to deny that the university experts, that without such control, the unfortunate fate of the northern county surely will follow.

In the face of this emergency, Essig has pledged every assistance possible from a research standpoint and the co-operation of Lee and Garin will insure the speedy and effective trial of the experiments under consideration. A great deal has been done in the matter of collecting data on useful and inefficient sprays, but the forthcoming tests will be very radical and will deal with the problem from entirely new angles. One of the most interesting experiments that will be conducted will be an attempt to use carbon dioxide vapor as a means of control.

The young men claim they saw the wreck in the canyon and took the tires as a souvenir. They denied taking other parts. The machine in question was stolen from the street in San Jose from Wertheimer and was driven over a 500-foot cliff.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—His suit asked annulment of his marriage and charging that his 18-year-old bride of three months is of unsound mind, will be withdrawn today, Frank J. Linares, young San Franciscoan, said today. The suit filed yesterday was followed by the announcement of Mrs. Linares from St. Luke's hospital that a reconciliation had been effected with her husband and that the marriage was merely the result of a quarrel between them.

Within a few hours after the filing of the suit, Linares verified his wife's statement, said that she had become reconciled and the suit would be withdrawn.

Mrs. Josephine Calderon, mother of Mrs. Linares, charges that the suit was one of the result of her son-in-law's parents to separate the young couple.

Noted Singer Descendant of Incas

To be the great-great-granddaughter of the last of the Inca princesses of Peru is the heritage of Marguerite d'Alvarez, noted operatic contralto, who is singing in the United States again this season. If Senorita d'Alvarez used her real name she would be billed as "the Countess d'Alvarez de Bocajerra"—for her father was a marquis and for several years was the diplomatic representative of his country in England. Her brother, the Marquis de Buenavista, is the first secretary of the Peruvian embassy in Washington, and the present president of Peru, Augusto B. Leguia, is her cousin.—Underwood & Underwood photo.

Richmond to Go After Money for Work on Harbor

Proposal Discussed to Send a Committee On to Washington.

RICHMOND, April 2.—Further advice will be sought from Congressman Charles F. Curry before Richmond sends delegates to Washington to assist him in efforts to secure a portion of the $15,000,000 for work on Richmond harbor this year. This was the decision reached at a mass meeting called at the city hall last night by the manufacturers and utilities bureau of the Chamber of Commerce. Secretary W. J. Wallace of the Chamber of Commerce presided at the meeting and several speakers were heard on both sides of the question.

It was argued by Harbor Manager J. H. Mander and others that personal representatives in Washington would be of material assistance to Congressman Curry in securing the appropriation which Secretary H. W. Verne of the Richmond Industrial Commission argued that Curry had the situation well in hand and could secure the appropriation if anyone could, and that the Chamber of Commerce and communication from Curry regarding the situation. The final opinion was that all possible steps should be taken to obtain the appropriation, but that delegates without further word from Curry.

EAT EVIDENCE, IS ATTORNEY'S PLEA TO COURT

FAIRFIELD (Solano County), April 2.—J. Perry of Dixon has been fined $50 and given a 60-day suspended sentence in the county jail by Justice of the Peace G. A. Duke of Dixon, on a charge preferred by Mrs. L. Frubling, widow of a farmer of the same locality.

The complaining and prosecuting witness charged the defendant with stealing one turkey from her brood and incinerating the fowl in a cage behind lock and key. The case was tried before a jury.

Mrs. Frubling claimed that the defendant has been in the habit of impounding her cattle, chickens and in fact anything that she might have running loose about the ranch, and holding them for a ransom, claiming that they had broken into his land and eaten of his grass.

In his impassioned plea before the jury to save the defendant from the tolls of the law, Attorney O'Hara suggested that the court and jury turn the evidence into a savory morsel and make short work of the case at bar.

The court ordered the jail sentence suspended, provided the defendant returned the wandering bird, together with all eggs it may have deposited in its forced confinement, which Perry will appeal to the Superior Court.

Motor Burns Out; Man Calls Fire Dept.

ALAMEDA, April 2.—When J. Kanemura, Japanese laundry man, drove up to the Webb street fire house and attempted to convey the information to Chief Walter Steinmetz that he wanted the fire engine, the chief was almost unable to determine whether it was Kanemura himself or his automobile which was on fire. A close investigation showed that it was neither Steinmetz nor the chief, but that Kanemura must mean that his house was on fire. Through a series of pantomimes and phrases in broken English the chief imparted his question and smilingly bowed that it was so.

Thereupon the street apparatus lost no time getting to 2425 Clement avenue, where Kanemura conducts a laundry. No signs of smoke could be seen but the Jap led the fire fighters to the rear of his place and pointed dramatically to his electric motor. It was burned out.

He had been attempting to find out from the chief if there was any way of making it run.

ARK OWNER TO FACE EJECTMENT SUIT OF CITY

15 Other Arkites Will Be Cited to Show Cause by Alameda.

ALAMEDA, April 2.—The case against Robert Arata, who owns an ark at the foot of Encinal avenue, which has been an object of contention among the city fathers for some time, was placed back upon the calendar this morning by City Attorney W. J. Locke.

Arata will be cited to appear in court in Oakland this coming week to show cause why he should not be made a defendant in a suit of ejectment. Arata is claiming the ark site on the grounds of squatter's right. Locke contends that he has no right as he is obstructing a public street.

Fifteen ark owners along the estuary will be cited to appear before the city council Tuesday evening and explain why their places should not be removed or torn down. This is the first step to be taken by the city in getting rid of the arks through active measures.

MANY PROJECTS ARE REPORTED TO HAYWARD C. OF C.

Officers Are Elected to Carry Forward Farm Products Exposition.

HAYWARD, April 2.—Many matters of importance came before the business session of the local Chamber of Commerce which immediately preceded the election of officers for the forthcoming Farm Products Show association, at the joint meeting of the two organizations held at the town hall here last evening.

Following a resolution protesting the passage of the meat inspection bill now before the state legislature, a discussion regarding the possibility of procuring a site for the proposed Dania Home resulted in the recommendation of the committee in charge of the project, that each individual take it upon himself to search out, inquire into and bring to the attention of the committee any such sites that might be found available for the purpose.

An announcement was then made that the Duranti Motor company, which has been considering Hayward as a possible site for a new plant, had recently decided to build in the neighborhood of the Chevrolet plant on the Foothill boulevard, thus making further investigation of the subject by this committee useless. Another announcement to the effect that the local pickle works had ordered approximately $100,000 worth of new machinery, was made by President A. W. Beam, and caused a stir of approval. The new equipment will more than double the output of the works and greatly increase its permanent pay roll.

TO RUSH WORK.

No definite action was taken on the matter of the poultry housing and feeding demonstration owing to a lack of members interested in this subject. Every effort is being made by the committees in charge of the financing of this project to have the work completed and in good running order by the time the official traveling conference of farm advisors and farm bureau directors arrives in Hayward. This conference is expected here the 23rd of May.

A recommendation that a city ordinance be enacted to control the operation of fraudulent solicitors was presented by the committee in charge of this movement and approved. Several communications from various travel bureaus throughout the state with regard to camping facilities in Hayward were read, and a motion was made that the park commission investigate the possibilities of using a portion of Memorial Park as a public camp ground. A suggestion was made that gas and water be provided and that a nominal sum be charged for the privilege of using the grounds.

Appeal for Support in Their Attempt to Increase their Membership to a Total Representing 75 per Cent of the Growers Signed by the President of the Berkeley Federation of Mothers.

The question of the legality of such an appropriation was raised by Councilman Charles D. Heywood and the request referred to the city attorney's office for decision.

DENVER, April 2.—"I do not care to make any statement before appearing in court today," Juvenile Judge Ben E. Lindsey told the United Press today. "I do not know what the court will decide in my case, nor do I know what action I will take."

Judge Lindsey was to appear this morning for final arraignment for contempt of court.

When Frank Wright was shot and killed at his home here five years ago, Mrs. Wright was tried for the murder and acquitted. Judge Lindsey, in his capacity as juvenile judge, gained the confidence of the son, Neal Wright, 16. After his talk with young Wright, Judge Lindsey said that he and the boy "knew who killed Wright."

When Judge Lindsey refused to tell what the boy told him, he was held in contempt and ordered to pay a fine of $500 or serve a year in jail. The case went to the United States Supreme Court, which upheld the verdict of the lower court. Judge Lindsey declared he'd "rather rot in jail than betray the confidence of a child."

It was expected that he would pay the $500 fine. Lawyers in Denver and newsboys throughout the country offered to pay the fine, but the judge refused to accept their offer.

$30,000 Expended to Make a Handsome Clubhouse for "Bills."

VALLEJO, April 2.—Vallejo Lodge of Elks soon will have its own home as the "Bills" will move from the Masonic Temple to the Irma, in Virginia street, during the month, according to present plans.

The Irma was purchased last year from the Wieman estate and the building which at one time was used as a school will make an ideal clubhouse. In all, $30,000 will be spent by the lodge for improvements.

The funeral of Joseph Vincent Brogan was held this morning from his late residence in Sonoma street, thence to St. Vincent's church where a high mass was celebrated for the repose of his soul. Interment was made in St. Vincent's cemetery and many friends and acquaintances were present at the grave when the last prayers were read.

The sum of $11,000 has been set aside by the Navy Department for the purchase of a turbine-driven pump for the navy yard power plant. The new pump will be attached to the salt water flushing system and will add materially to the water pressure in the fire mains.

J. B. Reynolds and Miss Bessie Murphy, both residents of Vallejo, will be married on Monday at the St. Vincent's church by the Rev. Father J. D. O'Brien. O. P. Harry Murphy and Miss Helen Hatheway are to be the witnesses.

Paymaster J. J. Lynch has been detached from the yard disbursing officer and will leave in a few days to join the cruiser Birmingham.

Repairs to the navy yard causeway will be finished by the middle of the month. The Public Works division of the yard has two pierhead cranes at work on the bridge contract.

Vallejo will be well represented at the hearing on the naval base bill at Sacramento next Monday night. The hearing will be conducted by the commerce and navigation committee of the senate and assembly.

A meek thief secured $350 worth of Liberty Bonds Thursday night from the home of Carson Estes, according to police report.

The city of Vallejo is preparing to spend over $2000 in repairs and alterations to the Carnegie Library in Virginia street. Among the contemplated improvements is a new lighting system.

INDEPENDENCE OF GIRL WAITRESS, DIVORCE CAUSE

BURLINGAME, April 2.—Mrs. Estrid Philip Smith, 20-year-old daughter of Carl Philip, broker, is willing to work for the privilege of enjoying her own life. She is a waitress in a Burlingame restaurant while her husband, William Smith, automobile mechanic, is suing her for divorce. He and Paul Ford, freight clerk, employed by the Southern Pacific company at Burlingame, as having won his wife's affections.

Although her father's home is a luxurious one and she is welcome to return, the young woman prefers her independence. Before her marriage in October, 1919, in St. Paul's Episcopal church in Burlingame, she drove her own car along the boulevards of San Mateo county. Now she walks. She is living in a small hall bedroom.

"If the job happens to be working in a restaurant and it is the way to independence, one might as well stay with it and enjoy it," explains Mrs. Smith. "I am willing to work for the privilege of living my own life."

Philip, father of the young woman, was a former official in the Poulsen Wireless Company.

ASSAY OFFICE TO BAN SOVIET GOLD

NE YORK, April 2.—The United States assay office here, fearing that a considerable amount of gold coming to this country from France and England may be of Russian Soviet origin, was reported today to have asked Washington authorities for the advisability of demanding ownership and origin affidavits on all gold tendered for purchase. For several months, in Washington instructions, the assay office has declined to accept gold known to be of Russian origin.

In cases where it was suspected that gold came from Soviet territory, affidavits of ownership and origin are required. Should this precaution be made general, it is reported in financial circles that the flow of gold to this country may be checked, as few bankers here would consent to signing the required affidavits.

Gold bearing the official stamp of the Royal Swedish mint has been received without question, although it is regarded as of Soviet origin, melted at the Swedish mint or given in payment for Soviet gold sold to that nation.

Because, however, of the amicable relations between Sweden and the United States, Treasury officials at Washington ruled that the assay office was not to refuse to purchase this gold.

SUSPECT SAYS HE IS HARDING'S SKIN

CHICAGO, April 2.—Everett Harding, 26, Chicago, who says he is President Harding's cousin, was arraigned before United States Commissioner Mason today on a charge of obtaining money by false pretenses as a government official and held in default of $5000 bond.

Secret Service agents said Harding claimed to be assistant secretary to President Harding. They said Harding told them he had added Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois, and aspirant for the presidential nomination, in his campaign. But finally swore over to Harding.

He is said to have taken twenty-two persons to Washington to attend Harding's inauguration on a "special" Pennsylvania train.

He was taken into custody after he is alleged to have made out a worthless check to the Pennsylvania for carrying his party to Washington.

Harding, it was said, took his 13-year-old sister Pearl, a Washington girl, to the White House.

James Sloan, personal representative of President Harding, was on route to Chicago to aid in the prosecution of Harding.

The Secret Service agents said the president in a telephone conversation denied the man was his relative.

SPECIAL EXHIBIT IS PLANNED AT OAKLAND MUSEUM

Acting Director Says Gems of California Mines Are to Be Shown.

Announcement of the special exhibit subjects for the month of April was made by Miss Susie Mott, acting director of the Oakland Public Museum, yesterday afternoon.

Starting tomorrow an exhibit of California precious and semi-precious gemstones together with descriptive labels telling of the location and status of California's gem mines will be on display in the special exhibit case in the children's room of the museum for a full week.

THE MONTH'S SHOW. The exhibit from the week of Sunday, April 10, to April 16, will be entitled "Curious Monies from All Over the World" and will be an exhibit of the evolution of money as a measure of value and a medium of exchange with emphasis placed on the many and curious forms of coins which have been in use during various periods of the world's history.

The last two weeks of April will be occupied with one exhibit designed specially for the children. Plans for this exhibit are now being worked out at the museum.

FOREST DISPLAY. A special display, under a forest scene, will be employed for this exhibit, which will present all of the common woodland animals from the museum collections. These animals will be dressed up in brightly colored costumes to represent the characters in the Uncle Wiggly stories published daily in The Oakland Tribune.

It is planned to work out this exhibit as a part of a convention of the woodland animals for the purpose of reaching a decision as to whether or not they will continue to live in the museum or whether they will do so as the animals did for years before Uncle Wiggly started telling stories about them, and retreat to the seclusion of the woods.

SMALLER CHILDREN WANTED. In this way, Miss Mott plans to attract the smaller children to the museum and at the same time present an exhibit showing the mounted specimens of the smaller woodland inhabitants which are a part of the museum collection.

Particular interest has been centered around the exhibit of shells and corals at the museum this week closing today as the crowded conditions of the museum make it impossible to have a permanent exhibit of shells.

Because of the large numbers of persons attending the museum to see the special exhibit, the staff is considering a plan of having the museum open one evening each week for persons who are unable to attend during the regular hours.

Theater Manager Wins Suit Dismissal

Superior Judge Patrick Parker, sitting for Judge Dudley Kinsell, yesterday dismissed the suit for $400 against John J. MacArthur, manager of the theatre of that name, and lifted the injunction issued on request of the playbrokers, Darcy and Woolford, permitting the theater manager to play "Canary Cottage" for a week commencing Sunday afternoon as previously arranged.

Darcy and Woolford filed suit this week, claiming that MacArthur had failed to deliver the royalty of $400 due for "Canary Cottage." MacArthur, through his attorneys, Dunn, White and Aiken, showed in court that he has had for many months $800 in deposit with Darcy and Woolford and that the suit was the result of malice on the part of interests desirous of having him discontinue dramatic stock at the theater.

On this showing the case was dismissed and MacArthur given permission to continue with the play, which will feature Alice Gentle in the principal role.

Rich Byron Husband Defendant in Divorce

That her husband, Charles J. Johnson, wealthy land owner of Byron, deserted her to live with a "mysterious woman" in Oakland and that he even brought the widow into her home and insulted and ignored her, are charges made by Anna L. Johnson in a suit for divorce just filed.

After thirty-seven years of married life, Mrs. Johnson says her husband began to treat her cruelly and that on one occasion while she was cooking he grabbed her by the throat and threatened to kill her. She alleges that Johnson began a suit for divorce against her September 11, 1920, but dropped the action.

Mrs. Johnson asks $75 in costs, alimony and a portion of the community property. Johnson is now working as a molder for the L. C. McAuley foundry.

Two Auto Thieves Routed by Owner

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—B. E. Johnson of 1254 Fulton street proved himself a good detective early today when he pursued two automobile thieves in a wild chase through the Ingleside district, recovered his stolen car and battled the robbers. That he did not succeed in capturing at least one of them was due to the fact that both were armed and threatened him with revolvers.

Johnson was visiting friends at 840 Fair Oaks. He was about to leave when he saw two men starting away in his machine. Taking another car, he set out in pursuit. Through the city highways the chase led to Twenty-seventh and Guerrero streets where the pair alighted and attempted to flee on foot. Johnson caught up with them, armed only with an auto wrench.

He endeavored to effect a capture and struck at the men with his weapon. When one of them exhibited a revolver and the second a blackjack he was forced to stop and they escaped.

Root Will Not Go to Philippines With Wood

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Ellis Root, vacationing on the Pacific coast, today continued his silence on political conditions, either foreign or domestic. However, he made the statement that there was no truth in the report that he was to accompany Major General Leonard Wood to the Philippines. Root arrived here from Santa Barbara.

Los Gatos to Take Chant Out of Chanticleer

LOS GATOS, April 2.—Zedd Riggs, prominent real estate man, and George Shaner, equally prominent citizen, have turned out rival inventions designed to relieve cities which have been driven to legislation for relief from the crowing of roosters. The ideas were suggested, the amateur inventors state, by a recent investigation in San Jose as to the need of a city ordinance prohibiting crowing fowls within the city limits. Riggs, claiming that a rooster must first flap his wings before he crows, has turned out a device something like hand cuffs, except that they restrain the wings and he called them "wing-cuffs." Shaner is an adherent to the theory that a rooster may crow with unmolested wings, but he cannot if the rooster has a checkrein which will not permit him to stretch his neck to full length. Therefore he has designed a checkrein which makes the bird carry his head slightly backward. It has a further advantage, the inventor claims, in that it gives the fowl a proud and mincing step.

Taxpayers' Association Head Presents His Plans to Pare Budget.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. SACRAMENTO, April 2.—All tired out, but working any way was the general atmosphere that enveloped the proceedings of the joint committee on governmental economy and efficiency when it resumed its sessions today at 10 o'clock. The committee continued in session until nearly midnight last night, hearing Will H. Fischer, secretary of the Taxpayers' Association of California, present the plan of his association, where, he asserted, nearly 100 officers would be eliminated from the state government. Fischer told the committee when he started in that he would need two hours to present his case, but at midnight he was still on the floor and he held it again today for the entire forenoon session. This hour was largely due to the frequent and complicated questions hurled at him which delayed the presentation of his argument. The committee planned to adjourn at 12 o'clock, and possibly tomorrow, in the hope that it could expedite the report.

All the administrative bills for state reorganization are to be taken up after the tax case has been heard and any other bills will be heard that may be presented, it was announced.

Hotel Men Tell About Expansion In Fifty Years

Delegates At Convention in San Jose Given Ocular Proof of Changes.

SAN JOSE, April 2.—The progress made in 50 years in hotel management in California was shown at the annual convention of the Hotelmen's Association of California by the erection in one corner of the lobby of the Hotel Vendome of a model of the hotel as it appeared in 1870. Standing opposite the modern corner of the Vendome, the model of the past caused much comment as they arrived for the convention last night. Behind the ancient desk are signs warning guests against the promiscuous use of firearms and holding about 24 hours late or completely wrecked.

The members of the association held a business session last night, while the ladies of the hotel held a social hour and a dance for handsome prizes donated by Manager Fred W. Tetzler of the Vendome. This morning some of the hotelmen entered a golfing tournament at the San Jose Country Club. Tonight the big feature will be a banquet followed by a ball, to which prominent businessmen and their wives have been invited.

Activities of Oakland Churches

Silsley Will Preach Upon Peace, War

The First Presbyterian church, Twenty-sixth and Broadway, announces an interesting service for tomorrow evening. Rev. Frank M. Silsley, pastor of the church, will preach on the subject "The Power of the Peaceful Revolutionist." In this sermon he will consider the need to revolutionize today. He does not sanction the soap-box orator, or the "red" agitator, but does believe in a peaceful revolution.

How is this to be brought about? Do we need our characters changed? Do we need our habits revolutionized? Who are the three leading peaceful revolutionists in Oakland? These are some of the questions which Dr. Silsley will answer in the sermon tomorrow night.

A unique program of music will be a feature of the service. Miss Marian Shorten, blind soloist, will sing, and Miss Bernice La Plante, also blind, will play an organ solo. The Temple choir will render one of Dudley Buck's anthems and Walter B. Kennedy will give an organ recital at the close of the regular service.

At the morning devotional hour, over seventy new members will be received into the church. Dr. Silsley will preach on the subject "The Power of Christian Fellowship."

"Millions Now Living Will Never Die"

Do you know that we are now in the period of disintegration and the dawn of a new order of things, and that those who survive the next few years of trouble will enter the Golden Age, for which man has long dreamed? "The Kingdom Come." Perhaps you have never thought of the future of perfect health and happiness, without pain or death, but the Scriptures clearly teach that this time is near at hand.

Did you hear Judge Rutherford's lecture on this subject at the Municipal Auditorium? If not, obtain a printed copy—25 cents.

PLAN FOR STORM SEWER URGED BY ELMHURST CLUB

House-to-house Canvass Made to Enlist Support of the Property Owners.

Elmhurst Community Club, which has endorsed the project of a storm sewer for that district, is making a house-to-house canvass in its interest. Leaflets bearing figures which it is asserted are verified for by George Mattis, city engineer; Marston Campbell and W. H. Edwards, commissioner of streets, are being circulated.

After outlining the section proposed to be assessed as between Eighty-fifth avenue, Stanley road, Hillcrest, the ridge on the north and an irregular line with a maximum distance of one block below East Fourteenth street on the south, it is asserted that the total average assessment will be $14 on a 50x100 foot, or $0.028 per sq. foot. The storm sewer will cost $250,000 or less, the city to pay one-half, the club leaders promise.

Statements are made that the heaviest assessments will be made where the floods have been greatest and the present channels are now located; the lightest assessment will be on the outskirts of the district, upon which the storm water originates; the main storm sewer carrying the drainage will empty into the present channel on Ninety-fourth avenue, forty-seven feet north of the north line of the property line of a street; if the streets and avenues are paved only and no storm sewers installed, immense volumes of water would flood portions of these streets and avenues and East Fourteenth street and catch basins could not be built large enough along the curbs to afford relief; proper drainage for Elmhurst school depends on the construction of the storm sewer; development of the district depends on the construction of the storm sewer. The project of the storm sewer has caused a sharp contest between the Elmhurst residents and property owners. April 14 has been set by the city council for the final hearing in the matter.

Church People to Produce Pageant

BERKELEY, April 2.—A pageant will be given at the Trinity Methodist church this evening under the auspices of the Young Married People's club. It is entitled "The Dawning" and was written by Dr. T. Bayard.

Rehearsals have been in progress for six weeks under the direction of Mrs. Mathilda Rudgers. Mrs. E. E. Keyes is managing the production.

There will be a chorus of fifty, with soloists. These are: Mrs. Millard Dickson, Mrs. George A. Bryce, soprano; Mrs. C. P. Earl, contralto; Philip Ascher, Robert N. Rushforth, tenors; Mary Allen, soprano. The principal characters will be taken as follows: Roman centurion, C. P. Earl; "John," the disciple, Philip Griffin; "Peter," Albert Wood; "Thomas," A. W. Rushforth; "Mary," Mrs. Magdalene; Mrs. Millard Dickson; "Rhoda," Mrs. C. P. Earl.

The story is based on incidents surrounding the Resurrection.

Remove Old Oil College Paintings

BERKELEY, April 2.—Several truckloads of oil paintings were removed from the basement of California hall today, and some of the "oldtime" masterpieces were covered with the dust of 40 years. For many years the paintings which have been accumulated by the university have been stored in the basement of California hall, and in the older campus buildings before its erection, for no suitable gallery exists in the university for their display.

Although not all the paintings are of merit, say the officials, many would look well among the works of recognized artists, and it is the hope of the university authorities that a gallery some day be built for their display.

The need of more room in the basement of California hall for the overflow equipment of the college building caused the officials to remove the paintings to storage in the university warehouses.

Movie Outclassed by Greek Theater, Held

BERKELEY, April 2.—"Movies" are outclassed by the simple settings of a Greek theater stage, in the opinion of Professor J. T. Allen of the University of California. The elaborate backgrounds created in moving picture spectacles, compare with the simplicity of the Greek stage, in his belief.

"Such extensive use of lights and sets as in the 'movies' detracts from the beauty of dramatic production itself. For this reason," says Allen, "the Greek theater with its simplicity of surroundings makes a far better setting for the expression of the drama than the 'movies' with their elaborate and artificial backgrounds."

Professor Allen says that indoor scenes cannot be properly staged in the Greek theater, and voices the need of the college campus for a suitable indoor theater at the university.

Rowdies Banned At Prytanean Festival

BERKELEY, April 2.—"Rowdies" will not be permitted within shouting distance of Harmon gymnasium tonight when the women hold the annual Prytanean festival. Such is the ruling of the students' senate, which is the governing body of the campus. The police will be on hand to prevent any trouble makers from approaching the gymnasium.

The sentiment of the students was passed at a recent meeting to prevent the continuation of the past custom of many of the students to appear at the fete prepared to cause mischief. Not only will the trouble-makers be met by members of the men's committees, but general representatives of the local police will be on hand to back up the sentiment of the students.

LOVE TRIUMPHANT TO BE THEME OF 1921 PARTHENEIA

BERKELEY, March 31.—The lure of gold as pitted against the spirit of love with the latter triumphant in sacrifice, will form the theme of this year's Parthenia of University of California girl students.

Typically Spanish in its setting and theme, "The Lilies of Mirones," the play chosen for the outdoor festival of the college girls, differs widely from other products in that early California life is used as a background.

The plot of the masque, in which several hundred college girls will take part, centers about the marriage of Mirones, a fair daughter of Spain, and Don Miguel, the play opens with a brilliant wedding festival during which there will be several solo and chorus dances characteristically Spanish. Don Estaban, the father of Mirones, wishes to clear a beautiful oak grove that she may make her home near him.

During the second part of the masque, which is the dancing of the Spirit of the Grove appears, demanding that a sacrifice be given and the grove be saved. Gold, accompanied by his men, appears, offering to give her life in sacrifice. She offers it in love, dispelling the power of evil, and is borne away by Death. As a finale the water spirits come up from the creek, picking water lilies on the spot where Mirones made her great sacrifice for love.

Miss Barbara Bronson, freshman student, plays the role of Mirones. While Miss Florence Ananoff, star of the San Francisco Players' club, is her fiancé.

Man Struck by Auto, On January 19, Dies

BERKELEY, April 2.—As the result of injuries received January 19 when he was struck by a skidding automobile, Frank Bracco died at his home, 1721 Eighth street, this morning. At the time of the accident Bracco's leg was severely injured, but internal complications which caused his death developed later.

The accident happened at the corner of San Pablo avenue and Ashby street, where Bracco was driving his car, when a machine driven by R. C. Mathews, 1050 Camella street, Berkeley, skidded and struck him.

Bracco, who was 45 years old, was a native of Italy. He was a member of the Court University of Foresters and of the Berkeley Chapter of Druids.

Burglars Enter Home of Berkeley Matron

BERKELEY, April 2.—Forcing open a French window leading from a porch, burglars last night effected entrance to the home of Mrs. Ernest Tanner, 1000 Tunnel road, well known Berkeley society matron, escaping with a small amount of loot. That the thieves were frightened away by the searchlight beam of the house was evident. Mrs. Tanner's loss consists of a collection of beads and an old-fashioned gold wedding ring.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Denial that his daughter, Miss Delight Curtiss, was named as co-respondent in the divorce action brought by John P. STUDY FOR PARENTS

He said further that sex education is practically a continuous life project. Sooner or later, he pointed out, teachers will have to assume the responsibility if they do not wish to rule the wrong type of parents, citizens and workers.

He urged that mothers equip themselves with the necessary information and that they study child psychology today. They might understand the state of the child's mind that makes it eager and receptive. He urged further that parents meet together and through discussion break down the old barriers and inhibitions that prevent them from speaking on the subject to their children.

At a luncheon following the morning session, Dr. Edna Bailey, director of the Oakland Public Schools, spoke on "What Is Being Done in Our Schools." This was followed by a general discussion which closed the conference.

Tribune Auto First to Make Yosemite Trip

Yosemite, April 2.—A TRIBUNE Buick car checked in at the Sentinel Hotel this morning at 10:15, achieving the honor of being the first automobile to reach the floor of Yosemite this year via the Wawona road.

The run from Oakland was made in just 14 hours which is fast time under the most favorable summer touring conditions and a meritorious performance for the Buick under the trying conditions the road had to face.

Fullen trees, deep mud, snow and a delay caused because a temporary bridge had to be built, were some of the obstacles surmounted.

A dance is being given here tonight in honor of THE TRIBUNE Buick crew in which all of the residents in the Valley will take part.

R. O. Skinner drove the car the entire distance.

The auto was stolen from in front of Fahey's home. The thieves took it to Alameda, and there abandoned it in front of the home of George Service, 1522 Willow street. He notified the department and Policemen Servante and Palmer recovered it, returning what the thieves had left of it to Fahey.

Denies Daughter Was Named Co-respondent

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Denial that his daughter, Miss Delight Curtiss, was named as co-respondent in the divorce action brought by John P. Hotchkiss against Constance Culpepper Hotchkiss was made today by Oscar Curtiss of this city. Though her name appears in the record, he explained, she is not named as a co-respondent.

and is also possible in social science and literature. With the possible exception of mathematics, the declared all studies furnish opportunities for the various important phases of such education.

STUDY FOR PARENTS

He said further that sex education is practically a continuous life project. Sooner or later, he pointed out, teachers will have to assume the responsibility if they do not wish to rule the wrong type of parents, citizens and workers.

He urged that mothers equip themselves with the necessary information and that they study child psychology today. They might understand the state of the child's mind that makes it eager and receptive. He urged further that parents meet together and through discussion break down the old barriers and inhibitions that prevent them from speaking on the subject to their children.

At a luncheon following the morning session, Dr. Edna Bailey, director of the Oakland Public Schools, spoke on "What Is Being Done in Our Schools." This was followed by a general discussion which closed the conference.

FORSBERG PLANS REVENGE FOR HIS ARREST, HE SAYS

In Letter to Friend Threatens
"Settlement" for Charges of Fraud Made.

Threats of revenge on those who caused his arrest and a declaration that those he is accused of swindling "gambled and lost," are contained in a letter from Emil Forsberg, Oakland "Ponzi," to an Oakland friend, Fernando Serna, and turned over to District Attorney Ezra Decoto today.

Forsberg will arrive Tuesday in charge of Captain of Inspectors James T. Drew, who went to Norway to bring him back after his arrest there on a charge of swindling numerous Rockledge friends out of more than $75,000.

"It is surely a terrible ordeal for me to be submitted to," says Forsberg in the letter, penned in a Christiana jail, "and it places me in an awkward position. I can do nothing until my return to America. But that will be my time. And at that time I will settle with those people who caused me this trouble. They did gambling. So did I. We all lost. It will cost them money, but they will understand that I can do something on. And my friends will not think any of this is my doing."

Speed Officer "Sold" On April Fool Call

ALAMEDA, April 2.—George V. Gray, speed officer of the Alameda department, broke all records last night when a telephone message came into the department that a badly injured boy, who had apparently been struck by a street car, was lying between the tracks at Pacific avenue and Willow street. Immediately the cops jumped on the machine and to the side of the recumbent figure.

Then they silently turned about and returned to the station. For on the breast of the figure was the inscription "April Fool." The figure was a clothing store dummy which small boys had placed on the tracks. To entrain the police department was beyond their greatest expectations.

English Club Will Give Entertainment

BERKELEY, April 2.—The English club of the university plans a series of free lectures and musicals, for a number of years the English club members have confined their activities to publishing the "Pelican" and the "Occident" and producing an annual play, but the new work will begin this month. James Fish, assistant recorder of the university and a member of the club, has secured a number of scholars and artists to appear in Wheeler auditorium, Tuesday evening, in the first entertainment. The members at present are perfecting the production of "Kismet," which will be presented in the Greek theater on April 20.

Baptist Pastor Will Preach Two Sermons

ALAMEDA, April 2.—The First Baptist church, State street and Central avenue, will have two interesting sermons tomorrow. The Rev. A. P. Brown will preach on "The Last Supper" in the morning. In the evening his subject will be "Will We Live Again in Body?" A fine musical program will be presented by the choir at both services.

ALAMEDA HOME ENTERED
ALAMEDA, April 2.—Mrs. H. Holinger, 1580 Lincoln avenue, reported to the police this morning that some one had entered her home through a basement window. As nothing could be found missing, it is thought that the invaders were youngsters of the neighborhood.

'Sleepy Hour' Theory at U.C. Is Exploded

BERKELEY, April 2.—So long and loud have been the protests of students of the University of California against the setting of lectures or examinations during "sleepy hour" immediately after lunch, that professors at the University have made a scientific investigation of the psychological effect of a heavy noonday meal.

The hour between 1 and 2 o'clock has always been known on the campus as "sleepy hour," and professors have found that it is most difficult to hold the attention of the students during that time. But now comes Professor E. C. Tolman with a series of experiments which prove, he declares, that neither the lunch nor the cup of coffee which follows can have any psychological effect upon the students.

Students may doze, and may be inattentive, he says, but they will retain as much of the lecture as if they were wide awake.

The tests were made in the following manner: A dozen syllables were repeated to students for memorizing at times selected before and after meals, and after the use of stimulants such as caffeine. The results showed that no real effects were due to the stimulants. Similar tests have been tried with animals, by testing how long they take to find the outlet of a box in which they are placed, but the results are not yet certain.

War Memorial Plea Is Issued by Barrows

BERKELEY, March 2.—A last minute appeal for the $250,000 bond issue of Alameda county to erect a civic auditorium to the memory of Berkeley's hero dead of the world war has been issued by President David L. Barrows of the University of California.

Dr. Barrows urges that Berkeleyans go to the polls before 7 o'clock tonight to register their approval of the bond proposal.

HEAVY BALLOTING MARKS PRIMARY IN EARLY HOURS

10,000 Berkeley Voters Are Expected to Register Choice for City Jobs.

BERKELEY, April 2.—Heavy early voting marked today's primary election in a vote of 10,000 is expected. A canvass of the polls this morning by city officials showed 2500 voters cast at 10 o'clock. A rush of voters is expected this afternoon with Saturday's busy audience and the return of commuters from San Francisco.

The registered vote of the city is about 25,000. At the primary, two years ago, the vote cast was 7500, with a vote of 10,000 at the final election three weeks later.

A mayor, two councilmen, three school directors and an auditor are being voted for today, in addition to a bond issue of $250,000 for a memorial and an advisory ballot on the same ordinance. Any candidate receiving a majority vote will be elected to office, otherwise the two highest for each office will appear on the ballot on April 23.

Rolph Asks Board to Reopen Ferry Dispute

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—United Transoceanic business of which Ralph Rolph is president, of which San Francisco bay ferries came into prospect again today with the announcement by Mayor James Rolph Jr. that he had asked the railroad labor board to reopen the case of the ferry boatmen.

When a strike on the ferry boats was threatened several weeks ago, it was settled by an agreement under which Mayor Rolph would investigate the situation and then, if properly requested by the parties to the controversy, would ask the labor board to take action.

He announced today that acting under that arrangement, he had written the railroad labor board requesting it to reopen the case.

Ferryman's wages were set several months ago by the labor board. The men claim that since their wages were set ferry revenues have been materially increased by advanced fares and that they should receive proportionate pay increases.

MORTGAGE PARTS COLORED CHURCH

Dissension and a near-riot in the Beth Eden African Baptist church, Filbert and Eighth streets, has grown out of the ejection of eight deacons of long standing because, it is alleged, they mortgaged the church without the knowledge of the members, and has resulted in a restraining order being issued in Judge Harris' court by S. W. Hawkins, pastor of the church.

These former deacons, who have been prominently associated with the church for many years, are Edward Marshall, B. P. Harris, W. N. Rouse, Thomas Berry, Oscar Sloan, S. R. Hackett, Norman Henderson and U. T. Jones. Hawkins declares that following their election some time ago the eight men have agitated against him continually and, though he has held services regularly, they have made it increasingly difficult. Things came to a climax last Tuesday when a business meeting was called at the church to consider what should be done about the mortgage. The eight deacons, supported by a few members, constituted such a disturbing element that it was impossible to conduct the meeting, Rev. Hawkins claims.

Several of Rev. Hawkins' followers were severely beaten. The police were called and the meeting was discontinued. Yesterday the eight deacons called upon Rev. Hawkins and informed him that they did not admit themselves ejected and forbade him entering the pulpit again. Hawkins then made complaint against them before Superior Judge Harris, and a temporary restraining order was issued. The eight deacons were also ordered to appear before Judge Harris Friday, April 8, and show cause why they should not be permanently restrained from threatening Rev. Hawkins.
